

MEDTECH

2016

INNOVATION IMPACT:
KEEPING NEW YORK'S FINGER ON THE PULSE
ALBANY, NY • SEPT. 26-28

Sponsorship Prospectus

MEDTECH 2016 is the premier leadership conference and technology showcase of New York's bioscience and medical technology industry (Bio/Med), drawing more than 300 decision makers from throughout the industry.

Change remains constant for the bioscience and medical technology (Bio/Med) industry. Stakeholders are consistently making real-time adjustments to established plans to maintain the slightest competitive differentiation. New York companies are at the forefront of innovation in this ever-evolving healthcare system. Topics like the fluctuating international market, user experience and building a multigenerational workforce continue to influence how companies innovate. With the upcoming Presidential election, healthcare again takes center stage. While the outcome of the election remains unknown, New York must continue to keep its finger on the pulse or risk being left behind.

MEDTECH 2016 sessions, in several specialized tracks, will examine forward-looking concepts and offer thought-provoking discussions. The Tech Showcase will reveal new and exciting medical innovations—the latest prototypes, new products and recent discoveries—from New York's pharmaceutical, biotech and medical technology sectors.

MEDTECH 2015 at a Glance

34% increase in attendance from 2014

85% of attendees rated their overall experience as very good to excellent

85% of attendees are likely to attend next year's conference

70% of conference participants are executive-level decision makers

MEDTECH 2016 offers unmatched opportunities to grow through professional development, strengthen and build new relationships with industry leaders and meet new partners, resources, customers and clients from the region's Bio/Med industry.

Connect Directly with Decision Makers

Sponsoring MEDTECH 2016 will increase your visibility among an influential audience of Bio/Med professionals—70% of MedTech participants are executive-level decision makers.

Align your organization with hundreds of professionals from more than 120 international, national and regional organizations.
